

Thank you, David. Welcome, Suzette.

We bid farewell to David Parks who has moved on as Managing Director, Scotiabank (Barbados) Limited to a new role in Scotiabank, Canada, as the Vice President, Retail Secured Lending. We thank David for his leadership and impact during his time in Barbados and wish him all the best in his new capacity.

Suzette Armoogam-Shah has been appointed as the new Managing Director of Scotiabank (Barbados) Limited.

Suzette brings a wealth of experience in Financial Services throughout

Canada and the Caribbean. She is a dynamic leader who has been with Scotiabank for over 25 years. She joined the Bank in 1995 and grew her career in Retail Banking, holding numerous progressively senior roles over the years. Her previous roles include Director, Regional Banking for the Atlantic Region, Canada; Director, Learning & Performance Consulting and District Vice President, Toronto West before moving to the Caribbean to assume the role of General Manager and Country Head, St. Lucia. Most recently, Suzette was the Director, Anti-Money Laundering, Caribbean

Region, where she led key initiatives focusing on digital solutions and process improvements.

This appointment provides the opportunity to grow and support female talent in the Caribbean. Suzette has been a catalyst for our performance culture and will lead the local business strategy in retail, commercial and wealth divisions, focusing on our digital agenda. We welcome Suzette to Barbados and look forward to working with her as we build an even better bank.
